Omega AAM 951 Gasoline Fuel System Dura-Cleaner

SPECIAL FEATURES

Omega AAM 951 Gasoline Fuel System Dura-Cleaner

cleans and protects the entire gasoline fuel system to keep the engine of your vehicle operating at peak efficiency.

- It is formulated with advanced ingredients for complete and effective cleaning performance on the fuel system.
- It rapidly cleans the fuel nozzle, combustion chamber, piston tops, cylinder heads and other parts of the direct injection engine.
- It helps extend the life of key engine parts by conditioning the gasoline fuel, offering additional lubricity to the engines.
- It improves engine performance by restoring lost horsepower and reducing harmful exhaust gas emissions.

OUTSTANDING PROPERTIES

Omega AAM 951 is a high-quality fuel system cleaner that:

- Is easy to use. One bottle can treat up to 70 liters of gasoline fuel.
- Helps optimize fuel economy in a single fill-up.
- Prevents new deposits from forming, minimizing the risks of rough idling and hesitations when stepping on the gas pedal due to dirty and contaminated or inferior-quality gasoline fuel.
- Is safe for sensitive devices, including three-way catalytic converter and oxygen sensor.
- Offers extremely long-lasting protection and cleanliness to the fuel system.

USE FOR

Omega AAM 951 is quality designed to treat the entire gasoline fuel system for every ten thousand kilometers. Use Omega AAM 951 as a complete and durable cleaning and protecting solution for virtually every type of gasoline & hybrid passenger car, with or without turbo engines. It is particularly suitable for vehicles equipped with new-generation direct injection systems and gasoline particulate filters.

Apply directly to gasoline, one bottle (300ml) can be used for up to 70 liters of gasoline.
